<sup>1</sup> The Bankruptcy Threshold Adjustment and Technical Corrections Act (“BTATC Act”), signed into law on June 21, 2022, Pub. L. No. 117-151, has made some small but important changes to the Bankruptcy Code. The BTATC Act makes a few technical corrections to the Bankruptcy Code. For instance, the Act clarifies that certain debtors who seemed to be prohibited from filing under the Small Business Reorganization Act (“SBRA”) (because they have affiliates that may qualify as “issuers” under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) may indeed qualify as SBRA debtors. Certain bankruptcy-related provisions of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (“CARES Act”) and COVID-19 Bankruptcy Relief Extension Act of 2021 (“2021 Extension Act”) have been extended by and through June 21, 2024. The BTATC Act sunsets in two years on June 21, 2024.

Section 101(16)

Carrier v. Jobs.Com, Inc., 301 B.R. 187 (N.D. Tex., Oct. 31, 2003, Judge John H. McBryde) (shareholders’ rights to require a Chapter 11 debtor to repurchase their shares of preferred stock was held to be a right to sell a security, and therefore shareholders had, in their preferred stock and attendant contractual rights, “equity securities” as defined by section 101(16) of the Bankruptcy Code).

... (the rights of holders of preferred stock warrants issued by a Chapter 11 debtor to demand that the debtor repurchase such warrants at a particular price were held to fall within Bankruptcy Code’s definition of “equity security,” contained in section 101(16), in that warrants were securities and the definition of “equity security” includes a warrant or a right to sell a security).

... (the equity security status of a shareholder’s interests in a Chapter 11 debtor, arising from rights to redemption of a debtor’s preferred stock and to demand repurchase of a debtor’s preferred stock warrants at a particular price, were held to prevail over the debt/claim status of such interests, and thus were held to warrant the disallowance of the shareholder’s claims in their entirety).

... (in order to qualify for an exemption to a preference action under section 546(e), a party must establish both that it is a “forward contract merchant,” and that the transfer sought to be avoided is a “settlement payment”).

... (the distinction between forward contracts and commodity contracts, for purposes of qualifying under the preference defense contained in section 546(e), is that commodity contracts encompass purchases and sales of commodities for future delivery on, or subject to the rules of, a contract market or board of trade, and leverage transactions, and that, by contrast, forward contracts are contracts for the future purchase or sale of commodities that are not subject to the rules of a contract market or board of trade).

Williams v. Morgan Stanley Cap. Grp., Inc. (Matter of Olympic Natural Gas Co.), 294 F.3d 737, 39 Bankr. Ct. Dec. 221, Bankr. L. Rep. P 78,683 (5th Cir., June 28, 2002, Judge Emilio M. Garza) (the definition of settlement payments in section 101(51A) was intended to be broad).

subject to expedited reorganization procedures set forth in section 362(d)(3)).

... (court adopted a definition of a single asset real estate debtor under section 101(51B) according to an active-versus-passive criterion that inquires into the nature of revenue generation on and by the property, that is, whether the revenue is the product of entrepreneurial, active labor and effort—and thus is not single asset real estate—or is simply and passively received as investment income by the debtor as the property’s owner and thus is single asset real estate. Real property that, for the generation of revenues, requires the active, day-to-day employment of workers and managers other than or additional to the principals of the debtor, and that would not generate substantial revenue without such labor and efforts, should not be regarded as single asset real estate).

... (Fifth Circuit found that Bankruptcy Rule 101(51B) provides 3 requirements that must all be met for a debtor to be considered a single asset real estate debtor: (1) the debtor must have real property constituting a single property or project (other than residential real property with fewer than 4 residential units), (2) which generates substantially all of the gross income of the debtor, and (3) on which no substantial business is conducted other than the business of operating the real property and activities incidental thereto. If a debtor fails to meet any prong, it is not a single asset real estate debtor.).

... (in order to be single asset real estate, the revenues received by the owner must be passive in nature; the owner must not be conducting any active business, other than merely operating the real property and activities incidental thereto. Under the prior jurisprudence, those passive types of activities are the mere receipt of rent and truly incidental activities such as arranging for maintenance or perhaps some marketing activity, or . . . mowing the grass and waiting for the market to turn).

Sec. 102. Rules of Construction

(l) Chapter 15 applies only in a case under such chapter, except that—

(1) sections 1505, 1513, and 1514 apply in all cases under this title; and

<sup>2</sup> The Bankruptcy Threshold Adjustment and Technical Corrections Act (“BTATC Act”), signed into law on June 21, 2022, Pub. L. The BTATC Act amends Section 104 to add Section 1182(1) to the sections of the Bankruptcy Code that are adjusted every three years on April 1 to reflect the Department of Labor’s Consumer Price Index for the prior year. Section 1182(1) defines who can be a debtor under Subchapter V. The Act sunsets in two years on June 21, 2024.

Sec. 105. Power of Court

(a) The court may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title. No provision of this title providing for the raising of an issue by a party in interest shall be construed to preclude the court from, sua sponte, taking any action or making any determination necessary or appropriate to enforce or implement court orders or rules, or to prevent an abuse of process.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a court may not appoint a receiver in a case under this title.

(c) The ability of any district judge or other officer or employee of a district court to exercise any of the authority or responsibilities conferred upon the court under this title shall be determined by reference to the provisions relating to such judge, officer, or employee set forth in title 28. This subsection shall not be interpreted to exclude bankruptcy judges and other officers or employees appointed pursuant to chapter 6 of title 28 from its operation.

(d) The court, on its own motion or on the request of a party in interest

(1) shall hold such status conferences as are necessary to further the expeditious and economical resolution of the case; and

(2) unless inconsistent with another provision of this title or with applicable Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, may issue an order at any such conference prescribing such limitations and conditions as the court deems appropriate to ensure that the case is handled expeditiously and economically, including an order that

(A) sets the date by which the trustee must assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease; or

(B) in a case under chapter 11 of this title

(i) sets a date by which the debtor, or trustee if one has been appointed, shall file a disclosure statement and plan;

(ii) sets a date by which the debtor, or trustee if one has been appointed, shall solicit acceptances of a plan;

(iii) sets the date by which a party in interest other than a debtor may file a plan;

(iv) sets a date by which a proponent of a plan, other than the debtor, shall solicit acceptances of such plan;

(v) fixes the scope and format of the notice to be provided regarding the hearing on approval of the disclosure statement; or

(vi) provides that the hearing on approval of the disclosure statement may be combined with the hearing on confirmation of the plan.

Sec. 106. Waiver of Sovereign Immunity

(a) Notwithstanding an assertion of sovereign immunity, sovereign immunity is abrogated as to a governmental unit to the extent set forth in this section with respect to the following:

(1) Sections 105, 106, 107, 108, 303, 346, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 502, 503, 505, 506, 510, 522, 523, 524, 525, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 722, 724, 726, 744, 749, 764, 901, 922, 926, 928, 929, 944, 1107, 1141, 1142, 1143, 1146, 1201, 1203, 1205, 1206, 1227, 1231, 1301, 1303, 1305, and 1327 of this title.

(2) The court may hear and determine any issue arising with respect to the application of such sections to governmental units.

(3) The court may issue against a governmental unit an order, process, or judgment under such sections or the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, including an order or judgment awarding a money recovery, but not including an award of punitive damages. Such order or judgment for costs or fees under this title or the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure against any governmental unit shall be consistent with the provisions and limitations of section 2412(d)(2)(A) of title 28.

(4) The enforcement of any such order, process, or judgment against any governmental unit shall be consistent with appropriate nonbankruptcy law applicable to such governmental unit and, in the case of a money judgment against the United States, shall be paid as if it is a judgment rendered by a district court of the United States.

(5) Nothing in this section shall create any substantive claim for relief or cause of action not otherwise existing under this title, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, or nonbankruptcy law.

(b) A governmental unit that has filed a proof of claim in the case is deemed to have waived sovereign immunity with respect to a claim against such governmental unit that is property of the estate and that arose out of the same transaction or occurrence out of which the claim of such governmental unit arose.

(c) Notwithstanding any assertion of sovereign immunity by a governmental unit, there shall be offset against a claim or interest of a governmental unit any claim against such governmental unit that is property of the estate.

(a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c) and subject to section 112, a paper filed in a case under this title and the dockets of a bankruptcy court are public records and open to examination by an entity at reasonable times without charge.

(b) On request of a party in interest, the bankruptcy court shall, and on the bankruptcy court’s own motion, the bankruptcy court may —

(A) Any means of identification (as defined in section 1028(d) of title 18) contained in a paper filed, or to be filed, in a case under this title.

(B) Other information contained in a paper described in subparagraph (A).

(2) Upon ex parte application demonstrating cause, the court shall provide access to information protected pursuant to paragraph (1) to an entity acting pursuant to the police or regulatory power of a domestic governmental unit.

(3) The United States trustee, bankruptcy administrator, trustee, and any auditor serving under section 586(f) of title 28-

(A) shall have full access to all information contained in any paper filed or submitted in a case under this title; and

(B) shall not disclose information specifically protected by the court under this title.

Sec. 108. Extension of Time

(a) If applicable nonbankruptcy law, an order entered in a nonbankruptcy proceeding, or an agreement fixes a period within which the debtor may commence an action, and such period has not expired before the date of the filing of the petition, the trustee may commence such action only before the later of

(1) the end of such period, including any suspension of such period occurring on or after the commencement of the case; or

(2) two years after the order for relief.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (a) of this section, if applicable nonbankruptcy law, an order entered in a nonbankruptcy proceeding, or an agreement fixes a period within which the debtor or an individual protected under section 1201 or 1301 of this title may file any pleading, demand, notice, or proof of claim or loss, cure a default, or perform any other similar act, and such period has not expired before the date of the filing of the petition, the trustee may only file, cure, or perform, as the case may be, before the later of

(1) the end of such period, including any suspension of such period occurring on or after the commencement of the case; or

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no individual or family farmer may be a debtor under this title who has been a debtor in a case pending under this title at any time in the preceding 180 days if —

(1) the case was dismissed by the court for willful failure of the debtor to abide by orders of the court, or to appear before the court in proper prosecution of the case; or

(2) the debtor requested and obtained the voluntary dismissal of the case following the filing of a request for relief from the automatic stay provided by section 362 of this title.

(h)(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), and notwithstanding any other provision of this section, other than paragraph (4) of this subsection an individual may not be a debtor under this title unless such individual has, during the 180-day period ending on the date of filing of the petition by such individual, received from an approved nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency described in section 111(a) an individual or group

(2)(A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to a debtor who resides in a district for which the United States trustee (or the bankruptcy administrator, if any) determines that the approved nonprofit budget and credit counseling agencies for such district are not reasonably able to provide adequate services to the additional individuals who would otherwise seek credit counseling from such agencies by reason of the requirements of paragraph (1).

(B) The United States trustee (or the bankruptcy administrator, if any) who makes a determination described in subparagraph (A) shall review such determination not later than 1 year after the date of such determination, and not less frequently than annually thereafter. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency may be disapproved by the United States trustee (or the bankruptcy administrator, if any) at any time.

The BTATC Act amends Section 109(e) to increase the total threshold amount of noncontingent, liquidated debts to $2.75 million from the adjusted April 1, 2022 total amount of $1,861,150 for Chapter 13 eligibility. The legislation removes the distinction between secured and unsecured debt for the threshold amount. This amendment is also retroactively effective for any case filed on or after March 27, 2020 that is pending on June 21, 2022. The BTATC Act sunsets in two years on June 21, 2024.

(4) The requirements of paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to a debtor whom the court determines, after notice and hearing, is unable to complete those requirements because of incapacity, disability, or active military duty in a military combat zone. For the purposes of this paragraph, “incapacity” means that the debtor is impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so that he is incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to his financial responsibilities; and “disability” means that the debtor is so physically impaired as to be unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in an in person, telephone, or Internet briefing required under paragraph (1).

Chapter 3: Case Administration

Subchapter I: Commencement of a Case

Sec. 301. Voluntary Cases

(a) A voluntary case under a chapter of this title is commenced by the filing with the bankruptcy court of a petition under such chapter by an entity that may be a debtor under such chapter.

(b) The commencement of a voluntary case under a chapter of this title constitutes an order for relief under such chapter.

Sec. 302. Joint Cases

(a) A joint case under a chapter of this title is commenced by the filing with the bankruptcy court of a single petition under such chapter by an individual that may be a debtor under such chapter and such individual's spouse. The commencement of a joint case under a chapter of this title constitutes an order for relief under such chapter.

(b) After the commencement of a joint case, the court shall determine the extent, if any, to which the debtors' estates shall be consolidated.

Sec. 303. Involuntary Cases

(a) An involuntary case may be commenced only under chapter 7 or 11 of this title, and only against a person, except a farmer, family farmer, or a corporation that is not a moneyed, business, or commercial corporation, that may be a debtor under the chapter under which such case is commenced.

(b) An involuntary case against a person is commenced by the filing with the bankruptcy court of a petition under chapter 7 or 11 of this title—

(1) by three or more entities, each of which is either a holder of a claim against such person that is not contingent as to liability or the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount, or an indenture trustee representing such a holder, if such noncontingent, undisputed claims aggregate at least $18,600 more than the value of any lien on property of the debtor securing such claims held by the holders of such claims;

(2) if there are fewer than 12 such holders, excluding any employee or insider of such person and any transferee of a transfer that is voidable under section 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of this title, by one or more of such holders that hold in the aggregate at least $18,600 of such claims;

(3) if such person is a partnership —

(A) by fewer than all of the general partners in such partnership; or

(B) if relief has been ordered under this title with respect to all of the general partners in such partnership, by a general partner in such partnership, the trustee of a

such a general partner, or a holder of a claim against such partnership; or

(4) by a foreign representative of the estate in a foreign proceeding concerning such person.

(c) After the filing of a petition under this section but before the case is dismissed or relief is ordered, a creditor holding an unsecured claim that is not contingent, other than a creditor filing under subsection (b) of this section, may join in the petition with the same effect as if such joining creditor were a petitioning creditor under subsection (b) of this section.

(d) The debtor, or a general partner in a partnership debtor that did not join in the petition, may file an answer to a petition under this section.

(e) After notice and a hearing, and for cause, the court may require the petitioners under this section to file a bond to indemnify the debtor for such amounts as the court may later allow under subsection (i) of this section.

(f) Notwithstanding section 363 of this title, except to the extent that the court orders otherwise, and until an order for relief in the case, any business of the debtor may continue to operate, and the debtor may continue to use, acquire, or dispose of property as if an involuntary case concerning the debtor had not been commenced.

(g) At any time after the commencement of an involuntary case under chapter 7 of this title but before an order for relief in the case, the court, on request of a party in interest, after notice to the debtor and a hearing, and if necessary to preserve the property of the estate or to prevent loss to the estate, may order the United States trustee to appoint an interim trustee under section 701 of this title to take possession of the property of the estate and to operate any business of the debtor. Before an order for relief, the debtor may regain possession of property in the possession of a trustee ordered appointed under this subsection if the debtor files such bond as the court requires, conditioned on the debtor's accounting for and delivering to the trustee, if there is an order for relief in the case, such property, or the value, as of the date the debtor regains possession, of such property.

(h) If the petition is not timely controverted, the court shall order relief against the debtor in an involuntary case under the chapter under which the petition was filed. Otherwise, after trial, the court shall order relief against the debtor in an involuntary case under the chapter under which the petition was filed, only if —

(1) the debtor is generally not paying such debtor's debts as such debts become due unless such debts are the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount; or

(2) within 120 days before the date of the filing of the petition, a custodian, other than a trustee, receiver, or agent appointed or authorized to take charge of less than substantially all of the property of the debtor for the purpose of enforcing a lien against such property, was appointed or took possession.

(i) If the court dismisses a petition under this section other than on consent of all petitioners and the debtor, and if the debtor does not waive the right to judgment under this subsection, the court may grant judgment —

(1) against the petitioners and in favor of the debtor for —

(A) costs; or

(B) a reasonable attorney's fee; or

(2) against any petitioner that filed the petition in bad faith, for —

(A) any damages proximately caused by such filing; or

(B) punitive damages.

(j) Only after notice to all creditors and a hearing may the court dismiss a petition filed under this section —

(1) on the motion of a petitioner;

(2) on consent of all petitioners and the debtor; or

(3) for want of prosecution.

(k) (1) If —

(A) the petition under this section is false or contains any materially false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement;

(B) the debtor is an individual; and

(C) the court dismisses such petition,

(3) Upon the expiration of the statute of limitations described in section 3282 of title 18, for a violation of section 152 or 157 of such title, the court, upon the motion of the debtor and for good cause, may expunge any records relating to a petition filed under this section.

... (a debt is the subject of a bona fide dispute under section 303(b) when there is an objective basis for either a factual or legal dispute as to the validity of the debt. Because the standard is objective, neither the debtor's subjective intent nor his subjective belief is sufficient to meet this burden.)

... (claims of small recurring creditors should not be counted for purposes of determining the number of creditors a debtor has in connection with an involuntary bankruptcy case under section 303(b)).

... (in determining whether a debtor is generally paying its debt when they come due, a court must look to four factors: (1) the number of unpaid claims; (2) the amount of such claims; (3) the materiality of the non-payments; and (4) the debtor's overall conduct in her financial affairs).

In re Moss, 249 B.R. 411, 44 Collier Bankr. Cas. 2d 600 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2000). Judge Barbara J. Houser (for purposes of determining the number of petitioning creditors in an involuntary bankruptcy case under section 303(b), two creditors entitled to payment as a joint obligation by the debtor hold a single claim against the debtor, and are therefore considered to be one petitioning creditor).

... (a special exception exists to the three petitioning creditor requirement in an involuntary bankruptcy case where debtor has made fraudulent conveyances and preferential transfers).

Section 303(b)(1)

In re Henry S. Miller Com. LLC, 2009 Bankr. LEXIS 2961 (Bankr. N.D. Tex., Sept. 11, 2009) (Judge Stacy G.C. Jernigan) (a petitioning creditor has the burden of proof of establishing a prima facie case that no bona fide dispute exists with respect to its claim under section 303(b)(1). Then, the burden shifts to the alleged debtor to present evidence demonstrating that a bona fide dispute exists. Presumably, having a judgment goes a long way toward establishing a claim not subject to a bona fide dispute.)

... (an objective standard should be used in analyzing whether a petitioning creditor's debt is subject to a bona fide dispute—in other words, courts should not simply rely on the subjective beliefs of the alleged debtor that the debt is in dispute. The “objective standard” in the law has historically meant using the hypothetical “reasonable man” standard.)

... (for purposes of determining whether a judgment creditor may qualify as a petitioning creditor in an involuntary bankruptcy case under section 303(b) (1), an unstayed judgment generally should not be deemed to be the subject of a “bona fide dispute” as to liability or amount, even if it is on appeal).

Section 303(h)

Knighthead Master Fund, L.P. v. Vitro Packaging, LLC (In re Vitro Asset Corp.), No. 3:11-CV-2603-D (N.D. Tex. Aug. 28, 2012) (bankruptcy court erred in finding that debtor operating subsidiaries were generally paying their debts as they became due when the evidence showed that they were not paying more than 99.9% of their unsecured debts).

... (court applied four-factor test to make a determination of whether an involuntary debtor is generally paying its debts as they come due, for purposes of section 303(h): (1) the number of unpaid claims; (2) the amount of such claims; (3) the materiality of non-payments; and (4) the debtor's overall conduct in its financial affairs).

In re Smith, 2009 Bankr. LEXIS 2436 (Bankr. N.D. Tex., Sept. 3, 2009) (Judge Harlin D. Hale) (with respect to the issue of whether a debtor is not generally paying its debts as they come due, the substantive legal ground for the filing of an involuntary bankruptcy case, section 303(h) requires that a court consider both the amount of the debt not being paid and the number of creditors not being paid).
